

Call for Organisers

For the organising of the 73rd International Session hosted in Zurich, we are looking for organisers who want to join us and take part in this great opportunity and create a unique session. The team will take on the initial and most crucial part of the organising process up until the end of the project. In total, this is from January 2012 until August 2013, with regular meetings throughout this period. The actual session lasts from July 17th-28th 2013. The first meeting will take place on the weekend of February 11th 2012 and attendance is mandatory.

All members of EYP Switzerland are invited to apply as organisers. There will be a separate Call for International Organisers later in 2012.

There are five departments that will be collaborating. Based on your applications, we will also invite some applicants to become Heads of Departments. The departments are:

- Finance: Accounting and budgeting
- Fundraising: Finding financial and product sponsors
- Communication: Creating the Corporate Identity with a website and logo, finding media contacts, general Public Relations, finding of session patrons
- Food & Beverages: Sponsoring, budgeting, creating a detailed catering concept
- Logistics, Infrastructure, Venues & Events: transport and transfer concept, facility management, recycling concept

When applying, you will be asked to:

- Explain in 500 words at the most your motivation, your experience and skills within and outside of EYP; what do you believe will make your contribution indispensable to the session?
- Write briefly what your plans are leading up to the session (school, university, job, etc.)
- Indicate your list of preference in which area you wish to work in

The deadline for applications is December 14th at midnight. We encourage you to ask any questions about your application by writing us an e-mail at zurich2013@eyp.ch. The selection panel will consist of the Head Organisers, along with the President of EYP Switzerland as an advisor.
